

On Wednesday, September 8, 2021, the Muscogee Nation Behavioral Health and Substance Abuse department staff hosted a suicide prevention awareness event. The staff held a come and go event, called “Chalking Out the Stigma.” MCN employees and citizens were invited to write or draw a message of hope and inspiration, to promote tribal efforts to support persons at-risk of suicide.

