Big Cussetah Church held their annual Veterans Observance. Mvskoke veterans were invited to be honored, and to hear remarks by former Principal Chief James Floyd. Chief Floyd spoke about the many experiences he had, as a federal employee directing a Veteran's Administration facility. Afterwards, ladies of the church read the names of church members who have served in the US military. Veterans in attendance made remarks about their service experiences. After a closing song and prayer, attendees feasted in the fellowship hall. Mvto Big Cussetah church members, for a great Veterans Day Observance
