

MUSCOGEE (CREEK) NATIONAL COUNCIL INAUGURATION

December 16, 2021 9:30 am CST
Okmulgee, Oklahoma

(Okmulgee) - The Muscogee (Creek) Nation, is one of the largest Indian tribes in the United States, with the original boundaries covering eleven (11) counties in northeastern Oklahoma and a tribal enrollment of 93,722, as of December 6, 2021. The legislative branch of the tribal government, the National Council, will host Inaugural ceremonies on Saturday, January 8, 2022 beginning at 10:00 a.m. in the Mound Auditorium, at the tribal Capitol Complex. The body is comprised of sixteen (16) representatives, elected from the eight (8) districts in the Nation.

The Inauguration will take place during a Special Session called by the current Speaker of the National Council, Randall Hicks. Representatives will take the Oath of Office for the Pale Hokkolen Eshokkolohkakat (22nd) Session of the Muscogee (Creek) National Council, with Supreme Court Justice Amos McNac administering the Oath.

The Muscogee (Creek) Nation Election Board has certified the following Representatives eligible to take office in the Pale Hokkolen Eshokkolohkakat (22nd) Session (2022-2023) of the Muscogee (Creek) National Council:

Creek District

Seat A – Joseph Hicks
Seat B – Patrick Freeman Jr.

McIntosh District

Seat A - Darrell Proctor
Seat B – Galen Cloud

Muskogee District

Seat A – Mary Crawford
Seat B – Joyce C. Deere

Okfuskee District

Seat A – Randall Hicks
Seat B – Sandra Golden

Okmulgee District

Seat A – William Lowe
Seat B – Nelson Harjo Sr.

Tukvpytce District

Seat A – Anna Marshall
Seat B – Thomasene Yahola Osborn

Tulsa District

Seat A - Robert Hufft
Seat B – Leonard Gouge

Wagoner/Roger/Mayes District

Seat A – Charles McHenry
Seat B – Mark Randolph